Listed are materials I need to ask aide for, but there's a fair amount of smaller supplies unlisted, MOST of which I already have, and some I may very fred and want to submit this proposal, please forgive me

Additionally, a majority of art supplies I purchase are from flea markets, yard and estate sales, Facebook marketplace, secondhand shops, and other resources for recycled materials, not only because it's budget friendly but to cut down on waste. Consumption is our planets biggest enemy, I do my best not to create waste when creating art; I try to take something that's already been used/produced, rather than add to consumerism by purchasing something Rest assured, I do collect receipts/written proof of purchase from secondhand sellers/facebook marketplace.
